

REMINISCENCES OF THE TRIP

Members of Girls' Club Greatly Enjoy Their Sight Seeing Trip in Providence

The Portsmouth Girls' Club delegation left Portsmouth on the 8.10 train Wednesday, May 13, with a merry farewell at the station, as all their friends were there to see them off. The weather was disagreeable and it rained hard, brightened only by the bright faces of the pretty girls, which beamed in radiance. The ride to Boston was uneven and we arrived at 10.30 at the North Station and left immediately for the South Station, arriving there we took the 11 o'clock train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad for Providence. The ride from Boston to Providence was very pretty and greatly enjoyed. The season is far advanced, the wild flowers being in full bloom. The girls interested in botany discovered that this was a fine district for wild flowers and that Indian Pipes were numerous. We reached our destination at one o'clock and enjoyed a most delightful luncheon at the Westminster tea rooms. Our first impression of Providence was a grand one. Providence is a metropolis in itself. The beautiful buildings, the well planned and arranged city, the fine historic points of interest and the cleanliness and attractiveness of the city as a whole, will ever linger in our memory. Providence is most excellent, both as a residential and business center. After lunch we visited the stores which presented beautiful assortments of various articles. We then walked through the city and saw some of the finest buildings, including the following: Narragansett hotel, Hotel Doctrance, the famous Turk's Head building, the popular place for ladies, "The Arcade," Infantry hall, the "sky scrapers" at Market square, Journal building, public library, railroad station, Central fire station, Dexter Hospital, armory, etc., and inspected Penobscot college, State Normal school, John Hay Library, Brown University, Ladd Observatory, post office and the chapel at

RICHARDS QUILTS RAILROAD

Will Be One of Five Trustees to Administer Affairs of
B. & M.

Boston, May 20.—James L. Richards, agreed upon by the federal government officials and by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad as one of the five trustees who are to administer the affairs of the Boston & Maine railroad after its separation from the New Haven, resigned today. The announcement was made by Governor Walsh, who said that Mr. Richards had taken this step "because he did not wish any misapprehension regarding his connections with the Boston Elevated railway company and other corporations."

MELLEN STILL ON THE STAND

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, May 21.—Ex-President Charles H. Mellen is still on the stand in the railroad investigation. When asked about Mr. Morgan dominating the New Haven, he replied that he sat at the head of the directors' table and a directors' meeting without him was like a herd of cattle without a bull.

AMERICANS ARE DEFEATED

(Special to The Herald)
London, May 21.—Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago and Harold Webster of Toledo were both defeated at golf this morning by their English opponents. This eliminates all Americans from the contest. Miss Blanche Davis of State street, is visiting her cousin, Miss Maudie R. Rand of Malden, Mass.

TO CHECK LONG PHONE TALKS

Public Service Board Soon
Will Have Names and Records of Long-Winded.

The Massachusetts public service commission will have at its disposal in the near future exact information, which will show who are the most talkative of the subscribers on the party lines of the telephone company, how long these patrons are in the habit of talking and the frequency with which they indulge in endurance conversation.

With this data in hand, the commission will be in a position to devise ways and means of abating the nuisance of the long-windedness on the party lines of telephone users on party lines and of finding a solution of the problem of giving all subscribers an equitable service.

For some time there have been numerous complaints sent to William H. O'Brien chief of the telephone and telegraph bureau of the commission, stating that this or that subscriber was holding the line for long periods to the exclusion of all others on the same line.

It has become a practice especially in the residential districts for patrons to discharge their social obligations over the wire, to discuss their household affairs at length, to gossip without interruption and even to conduct a courtship from receiver to receiver.

All these things take time, and often much time. The telephone company and commission have no objection so long as no one is inconvenienced, but in the case of party lines there is almost sure to be a stoppage of legitimate calls.

Mr. O'Brien points out that in the case of the four party lines in particular the subscribing to such service implies a sort of contract on the part of all the subscribers to give to the other subscribers on the line a fair show. This is not possible when one subscriber uses the line for long and continuous periods.

The excluded person has a just complaint and to obviate the difficulty the Telephone and Telegraph Bureau is inaugurating a system by which inspectors of the bureau and of the telephone company will observe all lines which are used for long conversations and will report to the commission the facts in each case.

Just what action will be taken when the statistics have been gathered has not been decided. In Michigan the commission which conducted a similar investigation ordered the telephone company to install a careful supervision to caution subscribers who used the party lines unduly, and as a last resort to compel the subscriber either to mend his ways or to take a service adequate to his needs.

Meanwhile those who use party lines for extended conversations will be watched and their attention will be called to the situation by diplomatic agents of the commission or of the company. Where this has been tried already excellent results have been obtained.

It is to be hoped that the same methods will be applied in this city where the abuse of telephone privileges is altogether too frequent.

VISITED THE NAVY YARD
A delegation from Storrs Post, No. 1, G. A. R., consisting of Commander Edwin Underhill, Thomas Danville, Henry S. Paul, Major David Urich, John A. Peterson, Joseph S. Donahue, M. B. Bell, Josiah N. Jones and L. T. Burnham visited the navy yard this morning and called on Captain Harry A. Mead, the acting commandant, in relation to the detail from the yard for the Memorial Day parade.

"Panama-Pacific Exposition and Panama Canal," Dr. Lloyd Lincoln Wirt, a lecturer of power, High school hall, tonight at 8 o'clock. Tickets 25c.

Conference of Commissioners and Representatives of B.
& M. Will Be Held
June 11.

Those in a position to know believe that some good will result in the joint hearing of the commissioners of York and Ractingham counties held in this city on Tuesday in relation to the freeing of the Portsmouth and Kittery toll bridge, which connects the two states, it was learned tonight that another meeting of the commissioners will be held in this city June 11. At that time representatives of the Boston and Maine railroad, which owns the bridge, will submit a price for which the commissioners can take over the bridge.

By many it is believed that the time is now ripe for the taking over of the toll bridge which has been a barrier to Portsmouth's progress for so many years.

RELICS ARE GOING FAST

This City Should Have Some of the Souvenirs at the Navy Yard.

There is no reason why the several parks in this city should not be ornamented with some of the relics of the Civil war, now at the navy yard, before the opportunity to do so has passed. These relics are fast disappearing from the gun park and if this city intends to secure any of the old shell or guns, somebody should get busy. Cities 1500 miles from here are grabbing up the souvenirs, and are willing to pay large freight charges to get them. Right here, we can get them for hardly any cost, and neither the city government or any patriotic organization cares enough about such a matter to ask the secretary of the navy for the ornaments.

MAYORS TO MEET GOVERNOR

To Arrange Entertainment for President on June 15.

The governor today issued a call for a meeting of the mayors of every city of the state at the committee room in the state house at Concord, at 11 o'clock on Friday forenoon. The object of the meeting is in connection with the preparations for the reception of President Wilson on the occasion of his visit to Manchester on Flag Day. It is expected that the militia will be ordered out for escort duty on that day and the mayors and other prominent citizens will act as a committee of the whole to make arrangements for the entertainment of the chief executive on June 15th.

AT THE PORTSMOUTH THEATRE

Oliver and White present a fine singing, talking and dancing act at the Portsmouth Theatre. Mr. Oliver's dancing is novel and snappy, while Miss White as a singer is an exception. She has been seen before on the Portsmouth Theatre stage, with the "Mysterious Maid" company.

Don't miss the act of Cameron and Sherwood, its a scream. This team presents some of the oddest and most ludicrous nut comedy stunts on record. But this "couple of nuts" are also singing "He's a Devil" and "Love the Ladies" in fine style. The closing number of this act is entirely new to everyone in Portsmouth, a song on the Mexican war; a brand new one, fresh from the composer's pen. Mr. Cameron has been seen before at the Portsmouth Theatre several years ago, when he brought down the house.

Declared that Peace Delegates Have No Power to Offer It at Media- tion Conference

Mexico City, May 21.—Presidential President Huerta in the course of an interview yesterday said:

"The Mexican peace delegates have no instructions to offer any resignation at the conference at Niagara Falls."

The President spoke with energy, standing erect and emphasizing his words with a characteristic gesture of the right hand.

Prior to this the acting minister of foreign affairs, Mateo Ruiz, had declared that the Mexican representatives had been given ample powers by the government to deal with everything that may be discussed at the peace conference, with the object of solving the international difficulty.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 20.—The emphasis was given to the report today that by self-elimination General Huerta would make it possible for the mediation conference to bring about peace in Mexico. It was announced in a dispatch received from Mexico City by the Associated Press that the provisional president had authorized his representatives to present his resignation if such a step became necessary to adjustment of the trouble with the United States.

Later, however, it was stated that there had been an error of transmission and that General Huerta had said that his delegates have no instructions to offer his resignation.

Before the correction came the report that Huerta was ready to effect himself was circulated generally and it occasioned no surprise anywhere.

The envoys of Brazil and Argentina, who with the Chilean minister, apparently were ready to accept the report as accurate.

In spite of the withdrawal of the dispatch, the feeling was that the reported announcement was merely premature.

Before the correction of the official Huerta dispatch was received, diplomats and delegates generally agreed that the voluntary retirement of Huerta would be conditioned upon the making of satisfactory terms concerning a successor.

It was argued that with Huerta out the mediators might entertain hope that Carranza and his Constitutional followers would be brought into the conference.

During the day the Brazilian ambassador received a message from the Brazilian minister in Mexico City couched in the most hopeful terms about mediation and indicating it is understood that General Huerta was prepared to relinquish office. Similar intimations have come to European diplomats in Washington, and for the last three days it has been taken for granted in diplomatic circles generally that the problem before the mediators was not so much the elimination of Huerta, but what was to follow his retirement.

The sentiment of disinterestedness which the Mexican ministers expressed in their informal talks was particularly emphasized in the opening speech of Ambassador De Gann at the first full conference of the mediation board during the day.

The ambassador's speech of welcome, the informal talks of the Mexican and American delegates together, the social afternoon at tea and formal exchange of courtesies, and the sentiments of hopefulness everywhere expressed, revealed a spirit of friendliness cordially among the representatives of the United States and Mexico, to which the mediators themselves attached no little importance.

Ambassador De Gann's speech furnished the keynote for the era of good feeling which prevailed.

On behalf of the United States and Mexico, Justice Lamm and Emilio Rabasa respectively made brief responses, echoing the sentiments of patriotism which were voiced by the Brazilian ambassador and expressing the thanks of their government for the tender of good offices.

Today's proceedings were chiefly concerned with preliminary organization.

The following method of procedure was approved:

First, the plenipotentiaries of Brazil, Argentina and Chile will preside over the conferences. The Brazilian ambassador will direct the proceedings.

Second, the minutes of the proceedings will be signed by the representatives and the three mediators; they will be countersigned by the three plenipotentiaries of the mediators and said minutes shall be drafted in English, Spanish and Portuguese and five copies thereof shall be made, namely, one copy for each of the plenipotentiaries and one copy for each of the mediators. The deliberations shall be secret.

Third, the full conference will be held first, for the expression of the views of the plenipotentiaries upon their request; second for the presentation of a plan of amicable third for their acceptance or rejection.

Four, the conferences will be closed by a full final session at which will be stated all the particular circumstances which are considered in arriving at the final result of the conference what ever such result may be. In the event of a favorable solution being reached the minutes of the last full session at

MARINES AND Y.M.C.A. PLAY A TIE GAME

Fastest Game of the Week--Marines
Have a Good Team.

In the fastest game of the week the Marines and Y. M. C. A. played a five inning tie on Wednesday evening in the Sunset League schedule. The game was fast from the opening and while the Y. M. C. A. connected with Bertwistle's delivery for five singles one a home run and another a two base hit they played loose in spots, and two errors by Davis in center were very costly. The Marines played a very fast game, and with the exception of one error by Bertwistle, which cost a run, they played perfect ball. They look like a good proposition for they have a very fast infield and while the outfield did not have much to do they look good enough. McCord at third and Moll at short made a good combination and Holbrook at second and Christie at first played a fine game and they go at it as though they were no strangers to base ball. Wiggins caught a fine game and his throwing was good with one exception. Bertwistle pitched well and played a fine fielding game, getting four assists.

The Y. M. C. A. had a few changes. McPheters went to third and J. Marden pitched and he was very effective allowing but three hits. Mulholland played right field in place of Newton and he had two hits and run bases exceptionally well. Young Thomas caught a rattling good game, making several difficult stops and getting one high foul fly well off the bleacher.

There were nearly three thousand people present and the game went the five innings, the first of the week. The Marines took the lead in the first, but lost it in the third and again tied it up in the fifth.

All teams with the exception of the Mosley Button company have played and the outlook is especially good for some fast ball. There are a great many young fellows in the teams and they have the ginger and snap that will make the league go.

The Game in Detail.
The Marines were up and McCord clouted a long fly to center which Davis allowed to go through him and before it was fielded McCord reached second. Berg hit along the first base line and Brockett made a good stop and threw to Marden who covered the bag, but he dropped the ball. McCord going to third. Moll filed in Timmons. Christie singled over second and Davis allowed the ball to go through his legs and McCord and Berg scored. Brockett was thrown out by McPheters. McPheters filed to Davis in center. Two runs.

McPheters singled and went to sleeping, on a quick throw by Bertwistle to Moll. Mulholland singled and stole second, and he scored on Timmons. Two base hit to center Harrington raised a fly to Brockett. Davis was thrown out by Bertwistle. One run, and on the throw. He was caught napping.

SECOND INNING.
Holbrook was thrown out by Marden. Wiggins fanned. Bertwistle drove a long hit over Timmons' head in left which looked good for a home run, but he only made second. McCord fanned. No runs.

Marden was thrown out by Bertwistle. Thomas hit to Holbrook and was retired at first. Brockett was hit and walked, but J. Marden grounded to McCord. No runs.

THIRD INNING
Berg was thrown out by Marden. Moll hit to McPheters who threw low to first and he was safe, going to second when the ball got past Brockett. Christie and Brockett fanned. No runs.

The Y. M. C. A. took the lead here. McPheters hit over left field and for a home run. Mulholland singled over second, and stole second. Timmons dropped one in front of the plate and Wiggins threw Mulholland out at third. A passed ball took Timmons to second and he continued on to third when Bertwistle made a throw to second with nobody at home and he scored before the ball could be recovered. Harrington and Davis struck out. Two runs.

FOURTH INNING
McDevitt fanned. Holbrook was thrown out by McPheters after a nice stop. Wiggins drew a pass and a Bertwistle on a passed ball, but Bertwistle raised a high fly that Thomas made a pretty catch of. No runs.

Marden struck out but the ball got passed Wiggins and he was safe at first. He stole second, but was caught a second later on a quick throw to Holbrook. Thomas walked. Brockett was thrown out at first by Holbrook and J. Marden struck out. No runs.

FIFTH INNING
McCord raised a high fly to left that Timmons got under but dropped, a wild pitch hit him on second, and he went to third on Berg's sacrifice. Marden to Brockett. He scored on Moll's single. Christie raised a high foul fly to Brockett and Brockett was thrown out by Harrington. One run.

McPheters grounded to McCord who made a fine stop and nailed him at first. Mulholland drew a pass, but was thrown out stealing second on a fine throw by Wiggins. Moll covering the bag. Thomas hit to Moll and was retired at first. No runs. The score:

IF KIDNEYS ACT
BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a Sign You Have
Been Eating Too Much Meat
Which Forms Uric Acid

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region, it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and laggy.

When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water sends and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life-saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink.

The questions on which the success of the mediation revolves were hardly approached today. The exchange of calls in the morning was followed in the afternoon by similar procedure.

Dr. Naon the minister from Argentina left cards at the headquarters of the Mexican delegates here and returned the call of the American delegates by motoring to the American side in an automobile decorated with two little American flags and leaving cards at their hotel. The American delegates called on Martin Barrell, the Canadian minister of agriculture and he to, went to the American side to pay his respects.

The Mexican delegates after paying their respects to the various parties to the mediation spent most of their time in their rooms receiving telegrams and writing communications to Mexico City. Senior Alguera de Terreros, former charge d'affaires in Washington and other members of the Mexican embassy staff were in consultation most of the time with the Mexican delegates.

The Chilean minister, Senior Suarez reached here shortly after midnight accompanied by his two secretaries. The minister who came from Philadelphia today looked very tired.

Books and Newspapers.

The 14th annual session of the American Booksellers' Convention was recently held in New York, and naturally the subject considered was books and the sale of books. There were several hundred booksellers present from all parts of the country, and the reports indicated that their business is not so flourishing as they would like to have it.

One of the speakers was R. B. G. Gardner of the Publishers' Co-operative Bureau, who said the people of this country buy fewer books and poorer books than do the people of England and Germany. "We have not," said Mr. Gardner, "developed our market as the other countries have done. There is not the stimulus for good reading nor the effective methods of distribution. The moving pictures, the week-end automobile trips, the innumerable cheap magazines, all have encroached upon time formerly devoted to the reading of books worth while."

There was truth in what the speaker said. The hurry and bustle of the present age, particularly in this country, tend to decrease the reading of books. The masses have not time for books, excepting those of the lighter variety which are read more for entertainment than for instruction, and it is probably true that this country will not compare favorably with some of the older nations in the reading of books of the solid sort. The majority of Americans are too busy with work or with play to get down to the reading of books that require some effort on the part of the reader.

But the principal cause of the trouble of which the booksellers complain, a trouble which is experienced also by the publishers of magazines, is the daily newspaper, which in recent years has made such strides as to be now in a position to supply almost entirely the demand of the masses for reading matter. The newspaper gives the people not only the news of the world from day to day, but its political, religious and scientific departments supply all the general reading that the average man or woman has time for. For this reason many excellent books remain on the shelves of the book stores or, if bought, are in many cases consigned to the shelves of the library unread.

The Americans as a people may not be great book readers, but they are great readers. They read the newspapers, which are the best in the world, and as a consequence they are the best informed people in the world.

The Brooklyn Central Labor union rises to propose that the government take over the Colorado mines and operate them until Congress provides for government ownership of all natural resources. But does the union stop to consider how futile would be a strike against the government every time any little thing went wrong? Some of these people who are howling for government ownership will be mightily disappointed if the thing is ever brought about.

The Young Woman's Christian Association building at the San Francisco exposition will be an attractive and valuable feature of that great event. It will be located near the main entrance and will contain a lunch club for women, a woman's protection bureau, an information desk and an exposition of many forms of women's work. This will be an inviting and helpful headquarters for women at the great exposition, especially such as go unattended.

When asked by an interviewer the other day if he had anything to say about politics ex-President Taft answered, "No, I am leading a respectable life now; I am out of politics." But Mr. Taft managed to lead a very respectable life when in politics, and fortunately there are others able to do the same in spite of the smudge that so constantly emanates from the political cauldron.

President Wilson is anxious to withdraw the federal troops from Colorado and to have that state take care of its own affairs, including the maintenance of law and order. The governor of the state hopes soon to be able to control the situation, and until he is the strong arm of Uncle Sam should not be removed.

The American Tobacco Company is "all het up" over what Thomas A. Edison says about the harmfulness of cigarettes. But why should the company be disturbed? Those frightened away from the use of cigarettes will in most cases continue to use its goods in some other form.

The house at Mt. Vernon, the home of the Father of His Country, which was built in 1743, is soon to be shingled for the fourth time. Unless better shingles were used than most of us are able to obtain the old mansion must have been seriously affected with dampness at times.

The mediation conference at Niagara Falls will not roar as loudly as the falls, but its voice will be heard to the ends of the earth.

The labor leaders sentenced in the dynamite cases are to go to jail at last. It is high time.

Railroad Bridges Near Vera Cruz Well Guarded by American Soldiers

Brigadier General Funston has placed strong guards at all the railroad bridges on the lines leading into Vera Cruz. Within a radius of ten miles the spans are protected from being blown up by the Mexican federalists. The federalists dynamited the San Francisco bridge near Antigua, about twenty-seven miles from Vera Cruz, thus blocking the way to Mexico City via the Inter-oceanic railroad.

Nathaniel Greene by Gari Melchers, of which the state has also every reason to be proud. The portraits of Governor Joseph Manton and others "of the old school" were donated to the state. Some of these are excellent portraits and exceedingly decorative, the officials being portrayed in velvet suits, lace ruffles at the throat and wrist, and curled, powdered wigs. Some are in the severe white choker and stock and sober garb of later date. The portrait of Sir Edmund Andros, by Hatchelder, is very striking. Andros was military governor for New England under James the Pretender, from 1688 to 1689, and the portrait was evidently painted from a photograph in 1871. This, with others from the old state house was thoroughly renovated and restored to its original condition.

Governor Joseph Wadsworth's portrait hangs near. He was one of the governors under the royal charter and was deposed by the state because he refused to sign the military commissions of officers elected by the general assembly. Others are the portraits of John Wadsworth, 1734-1740, which is embellished with the coat of arms, as are others of the same name; of Governors James Fenner, John Brown Francis, William Coddington, in blue coat and lace ruffles, and curled wig, who was said to be very dainty in his dress; William Wadsworth, whose coat of arms decorates the frame; William C. Gibbs, William Sprague, Sr., Henry Howard, painted by Hugo Brent; Henry B. Anthony, who was the United States senator for 30 years, and was considered the greatest eulogist in that honorable body; Elisha Harris, William C. Gozzens, who was called the "Accidental Governor," because he came into office by virtue of his position as president of the senate on the resignation of Sprague, who was elected to the United States senate. The portrait of Governor William Sprague hangs over the stair landing at the end of the central corridor. This is the only portrait of the war governor ever painted. Seth Padesford, Ambrose E. Burnside, James Y. Smith, Thomas G. Turner, William Gregory, painted by H. Cyrus Farnum; Alfred H. Littlefield, Byron Olman, Nehemiah R. Knight, Samuel Ward King, Governor during the Dorr war; John W. Davis, painted by Hugo Brent; Lemuel H. Arnold, Henry F. Lippitt, painted by John N. Arnold; Augustus O. Bourne, who at one time was consul to Rome; Herbert W. Ladd, the "father of the new state house"; D. Russell Brown, painted by Jared W. Flagg of New York; Charles Dean Kimball, Lucius F. C. Garvin, painted by Mrs. Caroline Thurber, George H. Ulter, Governor James H. Higgins, painted by Willton Lockwood of Boston; Elisha Dyer, Sr., who was adjutant general during the Dorr war, while by a strange coincidence his son held the same office during the Spanish war; William Warner Hopkin, Arthur E. Penner, William Jones and Elisha Dyer, painted by Hugo Brent.

In the retiring room of the house are the portraits of the speakers, past and present, as follows: Frank E. Holden, the first speaker to officiate in the new state house; Colonel James H. Armington, painted by H. Cyrus Farnum; John P. Burlingame, by Mr. Farnum; Arthur W. Dennis, also by Mr. Farnum; and Roswell R. Burdick, by Sidney R. Burleigh.

At the right hand, on entering the main entrance of the state house, was seen in a niche, near the continental flags, the fine tablet erected by the American-Irish Historical Society, to the memory of Major General John Sullivan, the patriot, statesman and soldier, who was in command of the American forces at the battle of Rhode Island. Opposite to this in the main entrance is a bronze figure of "History Guarding the Records," placed there by the Soldiers and Sailors Historical Society of Rhode Island, in memory of those who took part in the Civil war.

On each side of the main entrance and the Smith street entrance of the state house can be seen the Continental flags and the flags borne by the various Rhode Island commands in the Civil and Spanish-American wars, placed in sealed glass cases to preserve these precious relics.

On entering the Smith street entrance on the right will be seen the "Bull Run Gun," (a James rifled cannon), one of the six rifled guns forming the second Rhode Island battery, afterwards Battery A, of the First Regiment, Rhode Island Light Artillery. This gun was actively engaged in the battle of Bull Run, July 21, 1861. In 1862, after its active service was over, this piece of artillery was, by a joint resolution of the general assembly, presented to William Sprague, the "war governor" of Rhode Island, who on July 27, 1867, presented the gun to the state of Rhode Island, to be placed inside the state house, and to be in the custody of the state.

At the left hand will be seen the "Gettysburg Gun," disabled in the great battle whose name it bears. The inscription of the gun gives its history. A few facts were learned about this new capital, the pride of the state, which are:

Brothers of Worcester, Mass., were the builders; Gustave E. Wolters of New York, superintended its construction. Ground was broken September 16, 1895. The corner stone was laid by the Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons in the state of Rhode Island, October 16, 1896.

The building was occupied by the general assembly and state officers January 1, 1901.

The completed building, terrace approaches and grounds were delivered to the state June 11, 1904.

The commissioners served without compensation, and upon completion of their tour of duty they enjoyed the extreme pleasure of knowing that not one cent of the "people's money" appropriated for the construction of the state house had been diverted from its legitimate course. After paying all sums due for the construction of the state house, the commission turned into the state treasury $30,244.23, being the balance of appropriations remaining after all expenses had been paid. Building cost, with power house and tunnel, $2,402,809.82. Furnishings, decorations, etc., $215,000. Grounds, land (about 14 acres), cost $400,607.01.

The city of Providence donated to the state 454,833 square feet of land toward a site for the state house, and adjoining the land purchased by the state. The city land was taxed at 30c per square foot and was purchased by the city for 42c per square foot. This was used in the construction of the state house: 327,000 cubic feet of white Georgia marble; fifteen million brick; 1809 tons of iron floor beams.

The inscription on the south front of the state house is: "To hold forth a lively experiment that a most flourishing civil state may stand and best be maintained with full liberty in religious concerns."

The inscription on the north side of the state house reads: "Providence Plantations Founded by Roger Williams, 1636. Providence, Portsmouth, Newport, incorporated by parliament, 1643. Rhode Island, Providence, Plantations obtained royal charter, 1663. In general assembly declared a sovereign state, May 4, 1776."

Having made a thorough inspection of the state house we visited Brown university and went through the John Hay library, where the students were studying and busily absorbed in writing theses.

On the top floor of the library, there is a wonderful exhibition of beautiful oil paintings and songs of the Civil

CURRENT OPINION

Masculinism Makes Home Mere Appendage of Man.

Too much masculinism has had a very damaging effect on civilization. It has kept woman down. It has overloaded the child's natural growth with an atmosphere of dominance belonging to the masculine point of view. It has made the home, instead of a place of comfort for both, a mere appendage of man's, where the woman spends her whole time making comfort for him.

Under masculinism children have been disciplined and dominated over. "The first great woman educator, Mme. Montessori, has shown what may be done by the cultural idea, allowing the child to develop instead of 'breaking its will.'"

The home has always been man's, from the time when it contained as many women as he could buy or steal until today when he staggers under its burden, but will not allow his wife to come out of it and earn money. Man has put an aura of myth and poetry about the home, but did you ever see a man who would stay there for any length of time?—By Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Sociologist.

war which were very queer and quaint. The words were most amusing. This was the gift of some friend of the college, his personal collection. We went all through the "biological laboratory" and it was wonderfully fascinating. One student was dissecting a guinea pig and tracing the circulatory system. The exhibition of humans, animals, skulls, birds, fishes, amphibians, snakes, insects, etc., were very interesting. This collection is considered very fine. The grounds of Brown are very attractive, the university is situated upon a hill, on one side of Hope street, which is the elite residential section of the city. "Hope" is the state motto. The streets here are very hilly and are called such names as Friendship, Hope, Charity, Peace, Good Cheer, etc. Every little while one comes to a "What Cheer" store, the sign which Sir Roger Williams made the Indians upon his landing at Rhode Island.

A decided innovation to the girls was the place called "The Arcade," which is three stories high. On the first floor, candy, jewelry, clothing, millinery, shoes, etc., are for sale. On the second floor was nothing but millinery shops, about thirty milliners were located side by side. This attracted the girls as it would be an easy matter to select a hat in Providence, without hunting all over the city, getting footsore and weary. This was an entirely new idea and we liked it. On the third floor are offices and shops. "Here's to Providence. Long may it flourish!"

CONGREGATIONAL CONVENTION HAS INTERESTING PROGRAM

The afternoon session of the Congregational Convention attracted a large audience and the program was attractive and instructive.

The program was as follows:

2:00—Ninety-ninth Annual Report, Ministers' and Widows' Charitable Fund, Recommendations of the Trustees, Pres. C. T. Page, Report for the Treasurer, Rev. E. J. Allen, Concord, Address by Field Secretary, Rev. Edward H. Stearns.

3:00—Annual Meeting N. H. Cent Institution and Home Missionary Union, Address, "The Church for Farm Women," Miss Anna B. Taft, Assistant Superintendent Department of Church and Country Life, Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, New York City.

4:00—One Hundred and Thirtieth Annual Meeting of the N. H. Home Missionary Society.

Treasurer's Report, Mr. Alvin B. Cross, Concord.
Trustees' Report and Annual Survey, Rev. Edwin H. Smith, Soc.
At the evening session the devotional period was presided over by Rev. L. W. Mottari of Lee, Rev. Charles H. Brown, D. D., Moderator, National Council, New Haven, Conn., delivered a very able address. He was followed by Rev. Elmer T. Blake of Meredith, who spoke on "How Church Federation Works."

Rev. Charles S. Haynes gave an able talk on "General Missionary Experiences."

Rev. Harvey M. Eastman of Temple spoke on "Rebuilding Old Wastes."

The convention will be concluded with this forenoon's session.

The final session of the Conference of Congregational churches of New Hampshire was held this morning at the North Congregational church in this city. Hundreds of delegates from all over New Hampshire have been in town since Tuesday. This morning's session opened with a business meeting. A new board of trustees was elected and a new constitution, differing somewhat from the former, was acted on. Fraternal greetings were then extended, after which a devotional period was conducted by Rev. Rodney W. Roundy, of Keene, one of the foremost of the clergymen participating in the three days' program.

An 1:45 a. most interesting address on "Great Truths Needing Emphasis Today," was delivered by the Rev. John Cowan, of Lyme. The address proved to be one of the most eloquent types and greatly impressed the entire body of delegates.

The reports of the following committees were read and accepted: Committee on Benediction, by the Rev. J. P. Cardfield of Claremont; on Interdenominational Committees, by the Rev. E. R. Smith of Concord; the Advisory Committee, by the Rev. Dr. Soper of Nashua; Committee on the Anti-Saloon League, by Mr. F. L. Gerrish of Roseau; on the Brotherhood Committee, by the Rev. R. H. White of Concord; Committee on Uniform Records, by Mr. Joseph Benton, of Concord; Committee on Ministerial Standing, by the Rev. R. W. Wallace of Hillsboro; and the Committee of the New Hampshire Sunday School Association, by the Rev. R. C. Fales of Hanover.

The reports offered by these committees were very pleasing and satisfactory. Much progress is being made in every department.

This closing address by the Rev. Albert W. Hawes of Fitzwilliam, was one long to be remembered by all those present, being most eloquently delivered and of extreme interest and men's lift to its hearers.

The conference as a whole has been a great betterment to the already fine conditions of the chain of Congregational churches throughout the state. Portsmouth was only too glad of the opportunity to entertain the body, and expresses her regret at their adjournment.

DEFIANCE GOES TO MARBLEHEAD

Leaves Bath Amid Cannons' Booming and Salutes of Steamers.

Bath, Me., May 20—Amid the booming of cannon and the salutes of the various craft in the Kennebec river, the ship came to anchor today when she left on her way to Marblehead. The ship was decked with the flags of the International Signal code, while her signal letters L. D. K. W. flattered from the starboard spreader.

It was just four o'clock when the ship was cast from the yacht's berth at the Bath Iron Works, and a few minutes later the defiance trailed in the wake of the schooner yacht from both of which were in tow of the ocean tug Mercury. The craft proceeded up the river passed the Kennebec Yacht Club where a salute was fired and turning about, headed for the ocean.

It is expected the defiance will reach Marblehead before six o'clock tomorrow morning. Reports from Popnam beach at the mouth of the Kennebec were to the effect that a smooth sea was running which will make ideal towing conditions.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DIAMOND

Base Ball Gossip of Interest to Our Readers.

The hundreds of fans who were anxiously waiting to see the marines in action found out Thursday evening that they are right there with the snappy baseball. Bortchikoff pitched great ball in spite of his sore finger, which slackened his speed somewhat. The infield is in good shape and the backstop did some fine work.

George McPheters got an awful slam at the pill when he drove it out for a homer. But when it comes to speedy base running, any man in the league will go some to beat "Mac."

Young Timmons is playing a swell game. Thomas is a fit subject for a big league backstop. Marden pitched an excellent game. The Y. M. C. A. boys are showing up well, thanks to their careful training.

Another fast game is looked for tonight, when the Consolidation Club Co. and the Knights of Columbus come together. The line-ups are as follows:

C. C. Co.—Pillgrim, p.; Bailey, c.; Hemick, 1b; Bruce, 2b; Estabrook, ss; Cragen, 3b; Humphreys, 1c; Smart, cf; Downing, rf.

SEES PRESIDENT.

Congressman Stevens Talks to Wilson on Trust Bills.

Representative Stevens of New Hampshire, accompanied by Louis D. Brandeis of Washington, conferred with President Wilson today, concerning the proposed trust legislation pending in congress.

Mr. Stevens is author of the trade commission bill providing that the commission to control corporations should have not only the power to investigate their affairs, but be given authority to forbid corporations from engaging in practices which the commission regarded as improper.

The Covington bill, which has been made part of the administration program, gives only injunctive powers to the commission. The President is not expected to deviate from the trust bills agreed upon in recent conferences.

The local chapter of the Loyal Order of Moose have elected the following delegates to attend a convention to be held at Haverhill, Mass., on June 5th, 16th and 17th: William Smart, F. L. Harrison, Alternates, H. L. Jenkins and W. H. Lear.

ADMINISTRATION REALLY TAKING INTEREST IN CONSUL'S FATE

Silliman Still Missing and Fears Are Held for His Life--Bryan Playing Favorites.

Washington, May 20. (Anxiety among) officials here over the inability to get definite word from American Vice Consul John R. Silliman, who was reported released from prison at Saltillo more than a week ago, aroused the State Department to renewed activity today in the missing American's behalf.

Rehearsing his own apprehension, Sec. of State Bryan telegraphed to American Consul Hanna at Monterey, asking if it would be feasible to send a messenger to Saltillo to determine if Silliman ever had been released.

LONG SECRET DISCUSSION

Gen. Huerta and British Minister Carden Were Closed Together for Three Hours Yesterday.

Mexico City, May 20.—Sir Lionel Carden, the British Minister, had a prolonged conference yesterday with Provisional President Huerta, which has caused considerable speculation. For three hours the Minister and Gen. Huerta were together, but no announcement has been made about the subject discussed.

Minister of War Blanquet, in a statement last night, talked of the situation in the north. He said:

"There is no news regarding the reported evacuation of Saltillo by the Federalists and the advance of the Revolutionists southward from that place. The Department of Gobernacion in forms me that many Rebels wounded have applied in Torreon from the battle, that for several days past has been going on in Ramos Arizpe."

"Rodrigo Quezada, the counter-revolutionary leader, is attacking Casas Grandes in Chihuahua." Gen. Blanquet said it was untrue that he is going north to command the troops operating against the Constitutionalists. He said he would remain at the head of the War Department.

TAMPICO OIL WELLS SAFE

Practically All the Federals Have Left That District Without Attempting to Damage Them.

Washington, May 20.—Reports that practically all the Federals defeated at Tampico had left that territory without attempting to damage oil wells, and news that the Constitutionalists had retained, so far, from attempting to levy forced loans, on foreigners at their first seizure, relieved a menacing situation. The State Department, acting on suggestions from foreign sources, had informed the Constitutionalists that they should not administer the laws with "severity." Apparently that hint had been understood.

Continued reports from Mexico City tending to support the theory that an effort soon will be made to unseat Huerta renewed interest here in developments at the Federal capital. Greatest fear in Mexico City, refugees arriving in Vera Cruz declare, is not that the plot against Huerta will be executed, but that it may not occur before the entrance of the Zapata forces, which might precipitate more serious trouble.

That the Constitutionalists have renewed their active campaign south of Torreon was indicated in reports of desperate fighting before Saltillo. Villa's next immediate goal, details of the movement are lacking but one report stated the Constitutionalists' military chief had defeated 5000 Federals at Terepate and captured large quantities of arms and ammunition.

MISSING AMERICANS

State Department Insisting on Facts About a Dozen Reported to Have Been Detained or Killed.

Washington, May 20.—Government officials still await official word of the fate of Samuel Parks, the American Infantryman who strayed into Mexican lines outside Vera Cruz and who is reported to have been executed. Vigorous representations have been made to Huerta, who had promised to investigate the Parks case, and fix the blame for his reported death.

Some anxiety is expressed about John R. Silliman, American Vice Consul, who had been held by Federal officials at Saltillo. Mr. Silliman was said to have been released and started on his way to Mexico City, but definite report of his movements still is lacking.

The State Department also awaits the result of representations made to the Mexican Foreign Office over the reported detention of 10 members of the Smith family at Tonala, Chihuahua.

U. S. S. CHESTER DISABLED

Vera Cruz, May 20.—The United States cruiser Chester is disabled by engine trouble off Puerto Mexico, according to reports received here last night. The Salem sailed to relieve the crippled boat which will come to Vera Cruz for repairs.

WILL PREVENT BLOCKADE

United States Intends to Keep Port of Tampico Free and Open to Commerce, F. D. Roosevelt Declares.

Washington, May 20.—That every effort will be made by the United States to maintain the port of Tampico free and open to commerce, was declared today by Acting Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt.

While no definite orders had been issued, the Acting Secretary said that if necessary, steps would be taken to prevent a blockade by either Mexican Federals or Constitutionalists.

JOAN SAWYER AT THE SHUBERT THEATRE

Miss Joan Sawyer, a modern dancer who has attained great fame and popularity in New York during the past season, will appear at the Shubert Theatre, Boston for one week only beginning Monday evening, May 25th, in a series of modern dances, assisted by a large dancing company.

Miss Sawyer comes direct from her unique amusement resort, known as the Persian Garden, in New York where she has been dancing for seven months. She brings with her a special tango orchestra and there are said to be over forty dancers in this company. Miss Sawyer herself assisted by three different dancing partners, will render her own version of the tango, the maxixe, the hesitation, the three in one, and the unique dance which she calls the aeroplane waltz. Her supporting couple includes a dozen different dancing couples of various nationalities with several well staged dancing numbers. In addition to the regular program Miss Sawyer will give a brief talk upon the right and wrong way of dancing, while various couples illustrate her remarks. At the conclusion of the performance there will be a highly contest by local amateurs for the Joan Sawyer trophy cup, a beautiful silver creation standing 24 inches high. The winners of the nightly events will receive smaller cups and those winners will be entitled to enter the final contest for the large cup on Saturday night. Matinee will be given Wednesday and Saturday.

GREAT MASS OF PROOF

Reports of 30,000 Cases of Kidney Trouble, Some of Them Portsmouth Cases

Each of some 6,000 newspapers of the United States is publishing from week to week names of people in its particular neighborhood, who have used and recommended Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder troubles and urinary disorders. This mass of proof includes over 30,000 recommendations. Portsmouth is no exception. Here is one of the Portsmouth cases.

James Pickles, 11 Burket street, Portsmouth, N. H. says: "I had kidney disease for several years. I suffered from dull pains in my back. Often I had such acute twinges across my loins that I could scarcely move. The kidney secretions contained sediment and were so frequent in passage that I was obliged to get up several times during the night. I was unable to find relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Philbrick's Pharmacy. They helped me from the first and continued use entirely cured me."

THE PROPER CUTTING OF GRASS

Washington, D. C., May 20.—Grass should be cut "long" so that the roots will be protected after the cutting. This means, says the Department of Agriculture's landscape gardener, that the lawn mower should be set just as high as it will go.

Lawns should be cut frequently and in ordinary cases where the cuttings are normal they should be left where they fall, notwithstanding the contrary opinion of the energetic person who follows up his cuttings by raking with an iron rake. Lawns should never be raked with an iron rake, except to prepare them for the sowing of grass seed, for such raking burrows up the soil. Neither should they be swept.

If the diligent caretaker of a lawn must follow up the cutting by some other operation, only a wooden rake should be used, and this should be employed carefully so as not to disturb such of the grass clippings as have sifted down around the roots. These grass clippings that settle around the roots afford them a very important protection and will do much to keep the lawn in fine condition when there is lack of rain later in the season, for they will hold the moisture and act as a shield from the sun. In fact, the grass clippings are generally needed about the roots, and should not be raked from the looks of the lawn, for they soon shrivel, dry up, and work their way down, so that they are no longer noticed. Grasses are naturally cool-climate plants and are liable to be burned by the hot sun about the roots.

HIGH RECORD EXPORTS OF COPPER FROM THE U. S.

Washington, D. C., May 20.—Exports of copper from the United States in the six months which ended with March, 1914, amounted to nearly a half billion pounds, the exact total being 496 million pounds, or equal to the total for the calendar year 1908 and one and a half times that for 1902.

The trend in sales abroad has been steadily upward in recent months. The quantity of copper pigs, bars, ingots, and plates exported in November was 82 million pounds; in December, 78 million; in January, 72½ million; in February, 76½ million; and in March, 85½ million pounds. Copper manufactures of all grades exported in March totaled 14 million dollars, practically equal to that for the entire fiscal year 1895, double that of 1892, and six times that of 1890.

In every instance, as shown by the official reports of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, exports of copper pigs and bars have been larger during each of the past six months than in the corresponding period a year earlier. The single month of October last included a total of 67½ million pounds, compared with 50 million in October, 1912; November, 62 million pounds, against 46 million; December, 76 million pounds, against 57½ million; January, 1914, 72½ million, against 62½ million in January, 1913; February, 70½ million, against 59 million; and March, 85½ million pounds, against 53 million in March of the preceding year.

Prices of copper in the current year are considerably lower than in 1912. In March, for example, the average wholesale value per pound of copper pigs, bars, etc., exported from domestic ports was 14.4 cents, compared with 14.9 cents in March, 1912; in February of the current year, 14.7 cents, against 16 cents in February of last year; and in January, 1914, 14.9 cents, compared with 16.8 cents in January a year earlier.

The manufacturing countries of Europe take nearly all the copper exported from the United States. Out of 448 million pounds of copper pigs, ingots, and bars exported last fiscal year, 735 million pounds were sold to European countries, Germany having taken 250 million pounds, the Netherlands 160 million, France 120 million, and the United Kingdom a little more than 100 million pounds. Italy, Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Sweden, Russia, and Canada are the only remaining countries to which the exports of last year exceeded 4 million pounds.

Copper ranks high among the articles exported from the country, being exceeded only by raw cotton and iron and steel. In the last calendar year raw cotton showed a total export of 575 million dollars' value and iron and steel manufactures (including agricultural implements) 330 million dollars; while copper manufactures in the same year amounted to 145 million dollars. Present indications are that exports of copper manufactures in 1914 will approximate 160 million dollars.

QUIMET DEFEATED IN ENGLAND

Sandwich, Eng., May 20.—Francis Ouimet, open golf champion of the United States, was put out of the contest for the British amateur championship in the closing stage of the second round by H. Tubbs, a local player at Littlestone-on-Sea, Kent.

The defeat of the young American open champion proved as great a sensation as did that of Jerome D. Travers, American amateur champion. It has been thought that Ouimet would have no difficulty in disposing of Tubbs, who, although comparatively unknown and youthful, is a steady golfer. Tubbs never before succeeded in reaching anything like championship form.

On the links reports were current today that a wager of $150,000 to $50,000 had been laid on Monday against either Travers or Ouimet carrying off the championship and had been eagerly taken by some one who favored the American chances.

After his defeat Ouimet was the first to congratulate his opponent. As soon as the last stroke had been played the American shook the Englishman's hand with great cordiality.

Ouimet's weakness on the greens proved his undoing in today's match. He on several occasions was short of the hole, but also occasionally overran it. Sometimes he missed easy putts, and at the last hole actually failed to get down a three-foot putt.

The Englishman started badly by slicing his tee shot, but by good play on the green succeeded in halving the hole. At the second hole Ouimet bunkered, but by making a good recovery managed to halve that, and at the third. The American was again trapped at the fourth, where he played his approach shot (to strongly and got over the green, thus giving his opponent the lead.

The next hole was halved. Tubbs then further increased his lead by taking the sixth. At the seventh Ouimet halved with a fine long put and, heartened by this, secured the eighth. The next was halved, and Tubbs thus led at the turn by one.

Of the next five holes Ouimet was able to secure only one and halve two, and at the 14th was three down with four to play. He showed remarkable coolness at this critical stage of the match. He halved the 15th, and playing a fine tee shot, won the 16th.

At the 17th Ouimet was on the green in two, lipped the hole for four and went down in five. Tubbs at this time appeared nervous and could not do better than six. With the chance of making all square at the 18th, Ouimet got into the rough and Tubbs scored the hole and the victory.

Ouimet's grit at the end of the match when it looked as though, after a series of misfortunes, he might force the playing of an extra hole, evoked the admiration of the large gallery, and he was as heartily cheered as was his conqueror.

The third day's play brought together a bigger crowd of spectators than ever, owing to the open character of the competition in which five American players still survived this morning.

ALWAYS AT YOUR SERVICE

The American colony in England was represented largely and most of them followed the match between Ouimet and Tubbs. The enthusiasm of the American spectators was soon cooled by the way in which Tubbs handled their favorite. By the time the two players reached the turn Ouimet was one down, and Tubbs finished the round 2 up. Ouimet's card for the round was as follows:

Out ..... 5 5 4 7 4 4 5 3 5 42

In ..... 5 5 4 4 5 5 3 5 41-83

Tubbs did two strokes better on the first nine holes and one stroke better on the second half of the journey. His card read:

Out ..... 5 5 4 4 4 3 5 5 40

In ..... 4 5 3 5 4 5 4 6 40-80

Herreshoff Won Easily.

Herreshoff, after a weak start in his match, had little difficulty in disposing of J. R. Platt by 4 and 2. The American drove a good length, but was extremely weak on the greens going out. He managed, however, to make it all square at the turn. The moment the homeward journey started the American found the top of his game. His putting was perfect, he ran down long putts at several holes, and was so superior at all points that Platt was never able to extend him.

Harold Weber completely outclassed K. M. Carlisle. He outdrove him was better in his approaches and superior on the green. Weber made the outward journey in 36 strokes, a brilliant score, and turned six up. He won by 7 and 6.

In the early stages of the third round another American went over by the majority as Arthur G. Lockwood was beaten by Mr. Hayward of Ealing 2 up and 1 to play.

Charles W. Evans Jr., of Chicago, won his match with H. W. Scott by 3 and 2.

Harold H. Hilton, the holder of the British amateur championship, beat Robert Harris of Aston, Eng., by 2 and 1. Harris was the runner-up to Hilton last year.

Herreshoff Beaten

Frederick Herreshoff of New York was beaten today in the third round by one up, his opponent being Hon. Michael Scott of the Royal St. Georges Club.

John Ball, who has been eight times British amateur champion, was knocked out of the contest in the third round by Capt. Hambro of the Royal St. Georges Club after playing an extra hole.

Weber Wins Again.

Harold Weber of Toledo also was successful in the third round, reaching the next stage by beating A. Marriott by 2 up.

H. Tubbs, the vanquisher of Francis Ouimet, beat Mr. Hole by 3 and 1 in the third round.

"Chick" Evans came brilliantly through the third round by beating H. W. Scott. Evans played finely through the greens and his putting showed vast improvement. He made the turn up and never afterwards appeared in danger, the match ending at the 16th hole, when he was 3 up.

Evans' card was:

Out ..... 5 4 4 6 3 3 5 3 41

In ..... 4 5 4 6 5 4 8 31-72

Scott's card was as follows:

Out ..... 5 4 4 5 5 4 5 4 42

In ..... 5 4 4 5 5 4 4 39-75

Ouimet Has no Excuses

"Guess I shall have to give up golf," was Francis Ouimet's good humored comment after his defeat by Tubbs.

did not play at my best. That is the solution of the problem, and I have no excuses to make."

A RACE RIOT IN THE SOUTH

New Orleans, May 20.—The United Fruit Company today was using its wireless in an effort to contain a strange story of a race riot reported to have occurred on one of its plantations in Guatemala, in which it is reported, 64 negroes and probably 100 Indians were killed.

Smoldering race hatred of the native Indians for negroes, inflamed by one of the negroes winning the Indian girl, Nazada, from her father at dice and his refusal to sell her back to a native, is reported to be the cause of the trouble. The story came to New Orleans by mail.

The negro, Clarence Williams, had been working on the Teanahuera farm, one of a number of plantations the United Fruit Company operates in the Montagua River District, and according to the story he had incurred the hatred of many of the Indians because of his success with dice.

In a game recently in which Nazada's father participated, he won all the old man's money, and then, Guatemala fashion, the old man engaged his daughter, he lost.

As is customary among these Indians, the girl did not object to being a pawn in the transaction, and was taken to the shanty of the American negro.

ASSAULTED WITH BICYCLE FORK

High School Boy Wants Atlantic Shore Railway to Pay Damages

Leon W. Perkins, a high school student at Wells is suing the Atlantic Shore Railway at Alfred for $500 for alleged assault by George Purlington, a conductor of that corporation on May 13, 1913. On that day Perkins claims he boarded a car with other students. In fooling some one of the party caused the car whistle to blow and the conductor angered at the act came into the vestibule and it is claimed struck Perkins over the head with a bicycle fork which cut a gash one and a half inches long in the scalp. According to the counsel, the lad was rendered nearly unconscious from the blow and his head was bandaged for eight days.

Judge Cleaves counsel for the railroad stated that the high school boys caused a great deal of trouble on the cars. They made unnecessary noise, fouled and pushed each other, and bothered the conductor a good deal.

In regard to the alleged assault Judge Cleaves said it would be shown that it was an accident. He said young Purlington, the conductor, picked up the bicycle fork, came up in piper and was waiting to throw it off at a house along the line. When he did so Russell Perkins grabbed hold of the fork and at the same time Leon Perkins, the plaintiff, reached for the fork and got hold of Conductor Purlington's arm. In the struggle that followed, when the fork came free out of Purlington's hand, it swung round in such a manner as to strike Leon Perkins on the head and make a wound.

Purlington charges with the assault testified that the boys attempted to trip him by placing their feet in the aisle, and stopped the car without permission. He had no intention of injuring the boy.

A. L. Wilson of Kittery and George J. Kennard of Elliot are members of the jury on the case.

Nothing to the Report.

Following a rumor that the contract for the building of the submarine had again placed in the hands of the Lake Boat Company by the Secretary of the Navy, Congressman Reed was requested to look into the report and he lost no time in doing it. Today he advised that the report had no foundation after a personal investigation at the navy department where he was assured that no change had been directed by Secretary Daniels in the previous orders that the boat should be constructed here.

The Mare Island yard has been ordered to build two oil tank ships between now and January 1, 1915. The vessels are to be 165 feet long, 25 feet beam, steam propelled, and to cost $56,000 each. The eighth grade of the Parochial school defeated the seventh grade baseball team at the South playgrounds this Thursday morning by a score of 14 to 18. The feature of the game was the pitching of Currier and the slick work of Connors. The line-up: Eighth Grade—Hartnett, c; Currier, p; Connors, 1b; Parks, 2b; Russell, ss; Perry, 3b; Quirk, lf; Rivers, rf; Campbell, cf.

A GOOD PLAN.

Pedestrians Must Use Highway When Crossing the Railroad Tracks.

In addition to the street gates at the Vaughan street crossing, the Boston and Maine railroad will fence in all its property in that section to stop people from crossing the tracks at any other place but the crossing. For years, women and children especially have been carrying out a dangerous practice of climbing over the steps of passenger trains and crossing behind the depot or any place but the highway where they could find an opening.
